

Fail to Maintain Financial Responsibility (No Insurance)

Potential for Dismissal: The Defendant must appear at the Municipal Court office during normal business hours with proof of valid insurance covering the defendant on the date and at the time of the offense. A clerk will call to verify this information. The Defendant must appear at the Court on or before the Court response date on the front of the citation. There is no fee for a dismissal of this violation.

Expired Driver's License

Potential for Dismissal: Within 20 days of receiving the citation, the Defendant must present proof to the Court that the Driver's License was renewed in order to be eligible to have the citation dismissed. There is a $20 fee for this dismissal.

Failure to Display Driver's License

Potential for Dismissal: If remedied within 20 days of receiving the citation, the Defendant must present proof to the Court of an appropriate and valid Texas Driver's License issued in their name on or before the Court appearance date on their citation to be eligible to have the citation dismissed. There is a $10 fee for this dismissal.

Failure to Report Address or Name Change on Driver's License

Potential for Dismissal: The Defendant must present proof to the Court that the address was corrected on the Driver's License no later than the 20th working day after receiving the citation in order to be eligible for a dismissal. There is a $10 fee for this dismissal.

Violation of Driver's License Restrictions

Potential for Dismissal: The Defendant must make appropriate arrangements with the Texas Department of Public Safety and have the restriction(s) removed or corrected before their first appearance in Court and present valid proof to the Court by the response date on the front of the citation in order to be eligible to have the citation dismissed. There is a $10 fee for this dismissal.

Expired License Plate/ Vehicle Registration

Potential for Dismissal: The Defendant must present proof to the Court on or before the Court response date on the front of the citation. This proof must demonstrate that the defect (violation) was corrected within 20 working days from the violation date. Required as proof you must present a dated Vehicle Registration Receipt indicating that the "penalty fee" was paid to the County Tax Assessor. There is a $20 fee for this dismissal.